A virtual interaction and sharing of the students' ideas on how they look at gender in their daily lives. Through the poets, artworks, videos, small talks, and recitation the students have shared their ideas with us. The submissions are shared on Gender Champion Cell's social media at regular intervals.

An interactive Session was organized during the presentation of Vishakha Guidelines. Small chits with real-life scenarios are given to the students and from their answers the discussion is continued which is followed by a PowerPoint presentation about the history and the laws of Vishakha Guidelines.

International Pronouns Day is celebrated in virtual mode to aware of the importance of the correct usage of Pronouns.

A very interactive session was organized during the celebration of Men's Day at Gymkhana Hall. Students gathered and discussed the history of Men's Day, the needs of the Men's Day celebration, and the theme of Men's Day 2022 (i.e., 'Helping Men and Boys'). The event is followed by a photo booth session with each student participating with their opinion about 'I am a man/ a woman' because ____).
