III. EXAMINATION

A) Mode of Assessment

1. The M.A. course shall consist of four terms (semesters) spread over two years. In each semester the students shall be required to undergo examination in four papers (three in Semester IV, in the case of students opting for a dissertation) in which they have received instruction. Thus at the end of two years a student will have successfully completed the process of examination in 16 papers for qualifying himself for the award of M.A. degree.

2. The medium of Instruction for the M.A. degree course is English. Students shall write the Internal and University examination papers in English. However, if a student wants to write the answer paper in Marathi or in Hindi medium, he shall seek the permission of the teacher concerned (for internal assessment) and shall give the medium option in the examination application form (for the University examination).

3. The examination for each paper shall be of 100 marks. It shall consist of two modes of assessment: Internal Assessment (40 marks) and Semester-end Examination (60 marks). To be eligible to pass in a paper a student should secure minimum pass marks i.e. 40% marks in the Internal and Semester-end examinations taken together.

   a. Internal Assessment shall consist of the performance of the student in one or more tests. It could be in the form of Home Assignment / Class Test / Field or Laboratory Report, as part of continuous assessment to be undertaken by the teacher according to the needs of the paper he is teaching. It shall be completed by the teacher who is actually imparting instruction in a particular paper and shall prepare and hand over the Internal Marksheet to the Academic Section on the completion of the term. A student shall attempt the Internal Assessment only once.

   b. Semester-end examination shall be a written test of Two and half hours duration for each paper. The student shall answer four out of six or eight questions (with or without provision for organization under two sections). The answer-books will be evaluated by an examiner who is appointed for this purpose.

   d. The concept of continuous assessment of students throughout the academic year includes: weekly/twice in a semester Internal assessment focussing upon, MCQ, Short answers, Book review and/or critique, quiz, debate etc. I have also designed the question papers for semester end examinations which have A,B & C Sections with a distribution of marks being 30, 15 & 15 respectively. ‘A’ deals with 5 essay like questions, ‘B’ with 5 short answers while ‘C’ is exclusively objective type questions. The section ‘C’ is a real litmus test for the students as it again has three categories i.e. easy, semi-difficult and difficult type of questions.
e. The dissertation prepared by a student in Semester IV shall carry 100 marks. Internal Assessment does not apply in this case. Its evaluation shall form part of the Semester-end examination.

4. A student shall appear for his backlog papers of the semester-end examination as an external student. Examination for the backlog papers of a particular semester will be held only when that particular semester-end examination is being held for regular students.

5. Award of Grace Marks

   a. Grace Marks shall be awarded to a student as follows:

      i. A maximum of 4 (four) grace marks, to clear the semester in one or more papers (during first or later attempts) at a semester examination;

      ii. A maximum of 10(ten) grace marks to enable him to secure a second class or a higher second class or a first class in the overall final result

   b. Grace Marks shall be awarded by the Chairman, under his signature, at the meeting of the Board of Examiners convened by him to moderate the semester examination and/or final degree examination result.

   c. The award of grace marks shall be mentioned in the student’s semester marksheet or the final marksheet as the case may be.

   d. A student is entitled to the award of grace marks as per rules in cases of Verification/Revaluation of papers, but he shall not be entitled to grace marks if he has appeared for the examination under Class Improvement Scheme.

6. The final result of all four semesters of the M.A. degree examination will be based on the marks, Grade and Grade point obtained by him in all 16 papers covering Internal Assessment and Semester-end examination, and will be ranked with reference to the grades given below:

7. Before their formal declaration the results will be moderated by the Board of Examiners in consultation with Controller of Examinations (CoE) in the respective subject. Grace marks will be awarded as per rules.
B) Verification & Revaluation of Results

1. There shall be a provision for Verification & Revaluation of answer books of the Semester-end examination. The Verification & Revaluation shall be undertaken separately subject to the conditions mentioned below.

   a. Verification and revaluation will be undertaken for the semester examination answer paper(s) those who want to apply.

   b. The application, along with the prescribed fees, shall be submitted within 21 days of the declaration of the results.

   c. A Student who fails to get minimum required marks (i.e. 40) in the dissertation shall revise and resubmit it for evaluation as per the comments of the examiner. Revised dissertation shall be submitted for evaluation at any semester-end examination.

   d. Revaluation of the dissertation shall be done only when a student gets 40 and above marks.

2. Verification Cases: In cases of verification, the Controller of Examinations (CoE), Chairman of the Board of Examiners shall check whether the student has been given marks for all the answers pertaining to the paper and he shall also check the total marks obtained by the student in that paper. He will then note his remarks on the answer paper accordingly.

3. Revaluation Cases: The Academic Section will forward the applications and list of the students to the Controller of Examinations (CoE), making sure that the marks/grade obtained by the student in the first assessment have been properly noted and then covered. The CoE shall then assign the work of revaluation to a Member of the Board of Examiners other than the one who has already examined the concerned answer book(s).

4. The marks obtained by a student at the verification/revaluation will supersede the evaluation marks and a revised marksheet will be issued, only when:

   a. with the help of verification/revaluation marks he passes in the paper, or

   b. At the evaluation he has already passed in the paper and at the verification/revaluation he has scored 10 (ten) or more marks higher than the evaluation marks.
5. Except in cases mentioned in 4. a. & b. above, in all other cases, even if the marks scored by the student at the verification/revaluation are higher by 3 or less marks, the marks scored by the candidate at the first evaluation will be taken into account and the marksheet issued to him earlier will be valid.

6. A student, having obtained 10 or more marks more at the verification/revaluation, still fails to pass in the paper after adding the internal assessment marks, the marks obtained by him in the first evaluation will be taken into account and the marksheet issued to him earlier will be valid.

7. If a student at the verification/revaluation obtains less marks than the first evaluation, the marks obtained by him earlier will be taken into account and the marksheet issued to him earlier will be valid.

C) Class Improvement Scheme (CIS)

A Student who has already passed M.A. examination held by the Institute in A.I.H.C. and Archaeology / Linguistics but wishes to improve class obtained by him by way of re-appearing for the same examination will be permitted under following circumstances:

1. The student will not be required to keep any terms.

2. He shall be permitted to improve his class in two attempts and within three academic years of his having passed the M.A. degree final examination. The two attempts shall be treated separately for calculating the improvement of class. A student will improve his Grade as shown below:

   i. from Grade E to a higher grade (D,C,B,A,O,)
   ii. from Grade D to higher Grade (C,B,A,O,)
   iii. from Grade C to Higher Grade (B,A,O,)
   iv. from Grade B to Higher Grade (A,O,)
   v. from Grade A to Higher Grade (O)

3. A student shall be permitted to improve his earlier performance of the semester examination (out of 60 marks) only. He will choose and appear for the papers, from the semester end examination combination in which regular examination is being held at one given time, i.e. the combination of papers shall be from Sem. I and III and/or Sem. II and IV. He shall not repeat the semester options. The Internal Assessment marks shown in the M.A. degree final examination marksheet (out of 40 marks) shall be carried forward for calculating marks out of 100.

In case there is a change in the syllabus the student will opt for a new paper from the existing syllabus. In such a case the marks for the Internal Assessment for that particular paper will be calculated on average, based on the marks scored by him at the semester examination under the Class Improvement Scheme.

5. While accounting for the class obtained by the student under this scheme, the overall result shall be calculated on the following basis:
   a) marks (out of 60) obtained by him in the semester examination in all the papers he has reappeared;
   b) marks (out of 40) obtained by him in the Internal Assessment as shown in the M.A. degree final marksheet for all the papers he has reappeared in (a) above;
   c) marks (out of 100) obtained by him in the rest of the papers as shown in the M.A. degree final marksheet.

6. In case a student does not improve his class, he will be declared to have failed under the Class Improvement Scheme. The M.A. degree final marksheet, passing and degree certificates issued to him earlier will be valid.

7. If in the overall result at the Class Improvement examination, a student obtains a higher grade/class, he shall be given a revised marksheet, passing and degree certificates. In the revised statement of marks mention shall be made of his having improved the class under this category.

8. In the Class Improvement Scheme a student will not be entitled to the benefit of grace marks nor will he get the benefit of verification / revaluation of the answer paper. He shall also not be entitled to get any prize, medal, award etc.

D) Preservation of Answer Books

Due to constraint of space it will not be possible to preserve, for long, the answer books of the semester examinations.
